A MIRROR FOR TAX-PAYERS!

City Tax—Four Hundred and Twenty Thousand Dollars!

We invite the attention of the Tax-payers of this city to the following table, showing the aggregate valuation for each Ward of our City, the per centage of tax for City purposes just levied by our Democratic Mayor and Common Council, and the amount to be raised in each Ward—if the Taxes are paid:

Wards.	Valuation.	Tax.	Am't to be Raised.
1	$575,850	5 per cent.	$28,792 50
2	535,200	5 "	26,760 00
3	1,677,804	5 "	83,890 20
4	821,240	4½ "	36,955 80
5	812,820	5 "	40,991 00
6	310,290	4½ "	13,967 55
7	1,412,505	4 "	56,540 20
8	294,725	4½ "	13,262 62
9	292,100	5 "	14,605 00
	$6,441,235		$300,794 87

The above is for City and Ward purposes only. There is to be added the county and State tax, amounting to 18 4-5 mills, and yielding $118,268,43. We shall then have the following snug aggregate:

City Tax	$300,794.07
County and State Tax	118,268,43
Grand Total	$419,063,30

The per centage of tax for Ward purposes, in the different Wards, is as follows:

First Ward	2 per cent.
Second Ward	2 "
Third Ward	2 "
Fourth Ward	1½ "
Fifth Ward	2 "
Sixth Ward	1½ "
Seventh Ward	1 "
Eighth Ward	1½ "
Ninth Ward	2 "

The lowest tax is in the Seventh Ward, and for that, the property owners and tax payers may thank Alderman Prentiss.

That our city readers may the better appreciate the economical management of affairs, during the last year of Mayor Cross' administration, we subjoin a comparative statement of the City Taxes for 1856 and 1857:

Year.	Tax.
1856	$119,979 73
1857	300,794 87

Increase in one year.... $180,915 14!

No doubt they will now comprehend why the levying of city taxes was deferred till after election!

MAJORITIES BY COUNTIES.

We repeat our table of reported majorities for Governor, by counties, as far as received, making such alterations and additions as the mails and telegraph Saturday brought us:

Counties.	Randall (Rep)	Cross (Dem)
Dodge	250
Jefferson		100
Milwaukee		3,300
Ozaukee		1,154
Racine	302
Kenosha	280
Rock	1,800
Washington		1,300
Walworth	1,232
Waukesha	420
Winnebago	700
Dane		400

Fond du Lac	300
Columbia	400
Marquette	350
Sheboygan	200

Buffalo		200
Jackson		150
Trempealeau	150
Waupaca	500
Waushara	500

Portage	100
Manitowoc		650
Wood	50
Octagamie	—	175
Sauk	500
Iowa	—	200
Pierce	225	—
St. Croix	—	25
Brown	—	450

The footings in the above tables are, Randall 9,059, Cross 8,989—Randall 70 ahead. Barstow had in some counties 291 majority.

We have varying reports, but no reliable figures, from a number of other counties. The News, however, professes to have received the following additional returns:

Randall.		Cross.
Adams	265 m	Bad Ax	43 m
Door	55 "	Crawford	72 m
Dunn	35 "	Chippewa	118 m
Monroe	70 "	Clark	81 m
		Douglas	150 m

		Kewaunee	150 m
		La Pointe	50 m
		Marathon	25 m
		Oconto	70 m
		Polk	75 m
		Richland	25 m
			878

The News also cuts down the Republican majorities from 50 to 100 in several counties, and makes out a majority for Cross of 1,500. If its reports from the North and Northwest are reliable, Mr. Cross is elected Governor. But as some of the figures are evidently mere guesses, we await more authentic advices before conceding that claim. Meantime, watch the Official Canvass!

Fond du Lac Senator.—The Union foots up a majority of 6 for Robbins, dem. over Peet, Rep. for Senator. It will take the official figures to settle the matter.

Dane County Members.—The Madison Journal says:

Legislative.—This County has elected McDonnell, Crandall, Field and Sharp; (Republicans,) and Belding and Gault, pro-slavery "Democrats," to the Assembly.

The Legislature.

We give below the list of members of the Senate, holding over, heard from, and quite certainly elected, and the number and political complexion of the Assembly delegations, as far as heard from, and reasonably certain. Senators holding over marked *. Republicans in Roman Democrats in Italics:

The Senate consists of 30 members. Of these the Republicans have elected 17, with a fair chance for one more. The Democrats have 10 certainly, and the best look for two more. It is possible that the Democrats may get 13 Senators, but in any event the majority will be Republican. The vote in the 20th district is very close, and only the official figures can decide it.

Assemblymen elected as far as Heard from.

The Assembly numbers 97 members, of which 49 is a majority.

Of these Republicans have the best chance for 6 or 7—so that we may reckon upon the Assembly being Republican by a majority of 5 or 6, pretty certainly.

Massachusetts Election.

The Boston Journal of Wednesday, the morning after election, contains returns from 315 out of the 326 towns of the State. The footings show a plurality of 23,249 for N. P. Banks, the Republican candidate for Governor, over Henry J. Gardner, American. The aggregate vote for the different candidates for Governor is as follows:

N. P. Banks, (Republican)	60,306
H. J. Gardner, (American)	37,057
E. D. Beach, (Democrat)	30,473
Caleb Swan (straight Rep.)	149
Scattering	29
Total	128,014

The whole Republican State Ticket—Lieut. Governor, Secretary of State, Treasurer, Auditor, and Attorney General—is elected by large pluralities, and seven of the eight State Councillors.

In the Legislature, of the 40 Senators, the Republicans have elected 31, the Americans 2, the Democrats 4, and 3 doubtful. For the House of Representatives, the Republicans have elected 157, the Americans 32, and the Democrats 36, with 17 Districts to hear from.

The result exceeds the anticipations of the most sanguine of Mr. Banks' supporters. Ten thousand was the largest plurality his friends could figure out before the election.

Iowa Official.

All the counties of Iowa have been heard from except two small ones, and the Republican majority is 2,956. Both branches of the Legislature are Republican. The Senate standing Rep. 22, Dem. 14. The Constitutional Convention in a fair way to Fizzle out—The Ultras threaten to Withdraw, and leave it without a Quorum.

Correspondence of the Cincinnati Gazette.

Lecompton, Kansas, Oct. 29.

The Constitutional Convention is now in session in this place, but is doing nothing. Out of the 60 elected only 38 members are present, and they are hesitating what to do.

At a secret caucus held by these 38 members last evening, it was resolved by a majority to go on and frame a constitution with two separate clauses, one for and one against slavery, and to submit the whole to a vote of the people.

The more ultra members, however, protested against submitting it to a vote of the people, and even threatened, if this resolution is persisted in, to go home and leave the Convention without a quorum.

From present indications it is highly probable that the Convention will entirely fizzle out. W.

FROM KANSAS.

Gov. Walker at Leavenworth—Bitterness of the Democrats towards him—Complexion of the New Legislature.

Correspondence of the Cincinnati Gazette.

Leavenworth, Kansas, Oct. 29.

Gov. Walker with his man Friday, has just arrived here. They feel safer under the guns of the Fort than up in that miserable hole, Lecompton.

The last proclamation of the Governor, announcing his rejection of twelve hundred fraudulent votes in McGee county, has exasperated the National Democrats beyond all bounds. They feel the more bitterly, because this gives the Free State men a clear majority of two-thirds—The Legislature will stand 24 Free State to 16 Democrats, and the Council 9 free state men to 4 Democrats, making 33 Free State men to 19 Democrats—over two thirds.

There is some talk of an immediate calling together of the Legislature by the Governor.—So look out for another proclamation.

Interesting from Washington.

Much dissatisfaction has been expressed among the Democrats of New York and elsewhere, on account of a despatch sent from Washington last Friday night, to the effect that the action of Gov. Walker and Secretary Stanton, in rejecting the Oxford return, was unsatisfactory to the Administration, and that their removal had been resolved on in Cabinet meeting. The agent of the Associated Press, who sent this despatch, though a Southern man and a Democrat, was gravely charged with an attempt to affect the elections that were about to come off, and to make capital for the Republicans. This despatch created such a panic among the faithful in New York, that they seem to have fairly worried the President into resorting to the same weapons to create no alarm in Louisiana, until the election there was safely over.

Accordingly, the Albany Atlas and Argus of Tuesday morning contained the following message extraordinary.

"Washington, Nov. 2, 1857.

"To Hon. D. E. Sickles: There is not a word of truth in the removal of Walker and Stanton.

"J. BUCHANAN,

"P. Henry, Secretary."

This despatch may mean a great deal, or nothing at all, according as it is construed; but its design is apparent, and the proceeding is very suggestive. It will be a delicate morsel for the fire-eaters. The President is in trouble.—Cincinnati Gazette.

CITY MATTERS.

The Benefit To-Night

The benefit of Mr. Wm. F. Johnson, which for some days has been the subject of much comment and pleasurable anticipation in all circles of our city which feel any interest in the drama, takes place this evening.

The unequalled attractions which it offers will, we are sure, notwithstanding the pressure of the times, crowd the house.

The excellence of Mr. Johnson, as an actor, is too well known. He has been too long a favorite all over the country to need our praise. He is an artist in the true sense of that word. His acting is natural, chaste and intellectual: without extravagance and rant, and yet highly characteristic and effective; not abounding in broad merriment which is the outflowing of animal vitality, and yet full of fine descriminations and pervaded with an exquisite humor: if not often electric in its passion, yet it is so true to nature, it displays such excellent taste and judgement, it is the result of such careful training and study, that you always listen to him with pleasure and feel that you have a fine specimen of the good old acting which, in all disguises and under all shades of character, reveal the scholar and gentleman.

But without any disparagement to Mr. Johnson, the chief attraction of the evening, from its novelty, will be the appearance for this night only, and as an amateur, of Martin C. Coombs, Esq., a young lawyer of this city in one of the greatest historical characters of the Stage—Shylock.

Apart from the intrinsic interest of the performance, there is always a strong curiosity to see how a person of recognized ability, one with whom we are familiar in the daily intercourse of life, will bear himself in a new and difficult position, where only genius can succeed.

Mr. Coombs appears upon the stage under the most flattering auspices. His friends who have heard him before are enthusiastic in their commendation of his dramatic talent, and are sanguine of his success. The echo of his former fame, has reached us, and justifies high expectation of to-night's performance. His debut in Cincinnati some five years ago, is represented as having been very brilliant, filling the theatre to a jam with the fashion and intellect of the city, and resulting in a complete triumph.

Mr. Coombs possesses many natural requisites for the orator and actor—a fine physique, great force of passion, quick sympathies, a cultivated intellect and gentlemanly manner, and he will do himself full justice this evening. He has long been an ardent admirer and careful student of dramatic literature, and to those who have the good fortune to hear him, this evening, we are confident he will bring out into life-like reality and give a deeper meaning to "The Jew that Shakespeare drew," that wonderful character which we could never contemplate even in the solitude of the closet, without a mysterious awe and admiration of that sublime intellect which could evoke from the realms of the imagination such a type of malignant hate and demoniac revenge, and hold up the mirror to our fallen humanity not only in its glorious affections, but its fearful and despicable passions.

If any other inducement were wanting to an attendance this evening, we trust we may be permitted to say, without offending the delicacy of Mr. Johnson, that ill health has for a long time cut him off from the resource of his profession, and would render doubly grateful the testimonial of of a full house from the appreciative and generous public of Milwaukee, to merit under misfortune.

Common Council Proceedings.

MAYOR CROSS, PRESIDING.

On Friday night an adjourned meeting of the Common Council was held, to hear the report of the select committee appointed the night previous to levy taxes for the current year. Not more than one half of the members of the Council were present.

A communication from the City Comptroller was presented and read, stating that the Milwaukee and Mississippi R. R. Co., had defaulted in the payment of the interest on the bonds of the city due on the 1st of November, and that unless some provision be immediately made for the payment of the same, that it would seriously affect the credit of the city. That the chairman of the finance committee, in connection with the City Attorney, had called upon the Treasurer of the R. R. Co., but could get no satisfactory information in relation to the matter. A resolution was then adopted that the Railroad committee, in connection with the City Attorney, be instructed to call upon the financial agent of said Company, and request him to provide without delay, for the payment of the interest on the city bonds issued to said Railroad Company, and to report to the Council at the next meeting.

The Committee appointed to report resolutions in relation to levying taxes for the current year reported the estimate of the City Comptroller of the amount necessary to be raised for city and ward purposes, and recommended the adoption of the following resolutions:

Resolved,—That there be and hereby is levied on the real and personal estate within the city of Milwaukee, and the several wards thereof, subject by law to taxation, the following taxes at the rates hereinafter mentioned for the year 1857 upon the assessed value of said estate, as aforesaid returned by the assessors of said city in said year:

On the real and personal estate in said city for the purpose of paying the interest upon the city indebtedness, three fourths of one per cent;

On the real and personal estate in the city for the purpose of paying the current expenses of the same, three fourths of one per cent;

On the real and personal estate in the city for the purpose of paying off the city indebtedness, one per cent;

On the real and personal estate in said city for the purpose of redeeming five per cent of the present city indebtedness in pursuance with an act of the Legislature passed October 11th 1856, authorizing the city of Milwaukee to levy a tax for a sinking fund, one half of one per cent.

On the estate of the 1st, 2nd, 3rd, 4th, 5th, and 9th wards and one half per cent on the 4th and 8th wards for "ward purposes."

Alderman Prentiss battled hard against levying so heavy a tax upon the 7th ward, and showed by a careful estimate that one per cent was more than was necessary for the Ward expenses, and that three fourths of one per cent would defray all expenses and leave quite a surplus; but the extravagant "Democracy" bore him down, and all his efforts were fruitless. So much for Democratic rule!

A resolution was adopted authorizing the committee on Fire Department to procure a new Hose Cart for Engine Co. 6.

The committee on Flats to whom was referred the map of Robert Davis' sub division in block 295, in Gifford's Addition, and also the map of Cross & Ludington's Addition in section 30, in the 4th ward, reported in favor of accepting the same; Resolutions in accordance with which were adopted.

The Council then adjourned to Monday evening two weeks.

Stealing Newspapers.—A boy has twice been seen to steal the Sentinel, left at Green & Deuly's, 47 East Water street. He is known, and if he does it again will be dealt with according to law.

"Selling off at Cost."—This expression is what we call a double-entendre, but no doubt it usually means at something of a "cost" to the buyer.

☞ Remember the Sale of furniture, paper, glassware and clothing at City Auction Room this morning at 10 o'clock.

Theatre—Benefit of Mr. Johnson.—We once more remind our readers that the complimentary benefit to Mr. W. F. Johnson takes place at the Metropolitan Theatre, Young's Hall, this evening. The bill is an unusually attractive one. In the first piece, "The Merchant of Venice," Mr. Johnson plays Launcelot Gobbo, while the difficult part of Shylock will be sustained by Mr. M. B. Coombs, a member of the Milwaukee Bar, who has kindly volunteered his services for the occasion. In the very laughable afterpiece of "My Precious Betsey," Mr. Johnson appears as "Mr. Bobtail."

But aside from the attractions of the bill, there are the strong claims of Mr. Johnson upon his friends and the public, for a substantial benefit. It is his last appearance here, and to this parting appeal of a capital actor and estimable man we hope to see a most generous response.

Seats may be secured throughout the day.

We regret that we have very little to say of an encouraging nature at the end of another week. A considerable improvement has been noticed in the money market at the east, and in some quarters a more hopeful feeling is manifest, but money is very close here, with but slight hope of early improvement. The very small quantity of produce coming forward to go east, prevents us from realizing the benefits, by way of exchange, that have been gained elsewhere, and the lateness of the season forbids us to expect much relief from that source.

Prices have fluctuated somewhat, but up to yesterday a decided advance had been gained in wheat. We have given above the amount of wheat and flour shipped for the season. The former is somewhat, and the latter largely in excess of the shipments of last year to date.

Freights—are at 7@7½c on wheat, and 80c@82c on flour by sail to Buffalo. By steam flour is 50c to Buffalo.

Flour—no material change. Receipts from the country increasing. Moderate sales at 4,25 country extra; 4,50@4,75 city do.

Wheat—not quite so high, Saturday; spring sold at 85a87 for fair to choice spring; 75a85 for winter; the latter price only for a choice sample for milling.

Barley—light receipts and dull of sale at 55a60 cts.

Corn—at retail, nominal at 55a55.

Oats—moderate sales at 30a32.

Rye dull and nominal, 55a52.

Potatoes—plenty and quiet, 31a37½.

Hides—slow of sale, at 8c for green, 9a7 for dry.

Timothy Seed—dull, at $1,60.

Money Market.

Banking and Exchange Office of Bridge Brothers, 160 East Water St., Mil. Nov. 7, '57.

Encouragement for the future is certainly one of the least attractive features of the past week. Calls for money at high rates without the possibility of obtaining it, assail us on every side. Capitalists prefer to keep what they have—interest being no object—and debtors are compelled to ask extensions, unwillingly granted, and in most cases totally refused. It is estimated that not one note out of fifty falling due, is paid at maturity. Financiers have racked their brains for many years to devise some means for equalizing the currency of this country. It has never yet been accomplished—but the latest abortion has appeared in a recent number of the New York Courier & Enquirer, entitled, "Remedy for the present evils of a deranged currency, and security against similar revulsions hereafter."

The plan proposed is to have Congress pass a law authorizing banks to place with some officer, appointed as may be directed, certain approved stocks or bonds, and on such security the agent shall issue notes bearing the stamp of the U. S. thereby making them current throughout the Union, for Government debts, or any other liabilities.

The folly of this plan is evident. In the first place the agent or superintendent must be elected by Congress, the President, or the banks themselves—in either case the office is one of such importance that it would soon assume a political character, and lead to a great deal of dissension and discussion—as in the case of the old U. S. Bank.

In the second place no bank doing a legitimate local business ever requires the necessity of making its notes par on side of its usual circulation. The large amount of notes which have flooded the West, has, to a great extent, been composed of banks having no credit at home, and which consequently were obliged to seek credit elsewhere. There must always be a difference of exchange between one locality and another; and notes which are par in one city will be par in another adjacent or remote, according as the rate of exchange rules, and that is of course subject to the nature of trade between such communities. It is well known that exports and imports from the bulk of ex changes, and we might as well ask the bank of England to take our New York city notes at par, as to request New York to take the notes of the west without a discount.

The reported amount of specie expected by the Persia, proved to be certificates of deposite issued by the Bank of England, and thus far has not been very beneficial in its results. It is questionable whether such paper will find an easy market, and we should doubt the policy of sending such class of funds in lieu of specie.

The Saint Alban's Bank and the Woodstock Bank, of Vermont, are reported as failed, and thrown out by the Metropolitan Bank. Such banks, together with other worthless trash, will undoubtedly be sent out here under the arrangement of the New York and the Suffolk Banks so long as they can be quoted for an hour. We would advise all parties to be careful of new banks and new issues until satisfied of their value.

We have not yet issued a circular for purchase of un current money. We prefer to lose what little profit we might make, than subject our customers to a heavy sacrifice.

The Official Returns.

The closeness of the vote on the State ticket gives additional interest and importance to the Official returns. The votes of the different counties will be canvassed to-morrow, and we shall be under great obligations to any members of the Boards of Canvassers who will take the trouble to forward us, by the earliest conveyance, the official result in their respective counties. Two years ago a bold attempt was made by certain partizans to cheat the people out of their choice for Governor. To this end the official canvass was tampered with and false counts and forged returns sent to Madison and allowed for Barstow. Let Republicans everywhere be on the watch against a repetition of these infamous frauds!

Taking a Snap Judgment.

The News crows long and lustily over the result of the election in this State, and sets it down as an endorsement of the "Dred Scott Decision" and "Popular Sovereignty" and an approval of "Buchanan's Administration." The News speaks too quick. The Jury has not all been polled. Nor is it all clear that even the partial verdict rendered is in favor of the distinguishing doctrines of the Pro-Slavery Democracy. On a two-third vote it is nearly a draw game between the two parties. Of the absentees from the polls no man doubts that a large majority are Republicans.—The explanation of that absence is to be found, not in the change of political views, but in the fact that business cares proved of more absorbing interest, in these times, than the State election.

All Sorts of "Currency."

In the money article of the N. Y. Tribune, of Wednesday last, we find the following:

Messrs. Thompson, Moore & Co., No. 2 Wall street, quote Currency, Land Warrants, &c., this week as follows:

	par to ¼ ¢ cent prem
Gold
New York State Currency	¼ ½ cent dis
Philadelphia "	44@46 ¢ cent dis
Rhode Island "	44@7 ¢ cent dis
Canada "	2@2½ "
Ill. and Wis. "	10@12 "
N. Carolina and Vir. "	10@12 "
Tennessee "	20@ "
Other South'n & West'n do	5@ 7 "

Considering that the Wisconsin Currency is amply secured by State Stocks, and that our banks have not suspended specie payments, the slave demanded by the New York Brokers is a pretty steep one. It is an illustration, however, of one of the chief evils under which the country is now suffering, and one of the main causes, moreover, of the pievailing derangement in business. "Currency" which is good in Wisconsin, is eyed askant in Michigan, reluctantly received in Ohio, and rejected altogether in New York and other Eastern States. And so of the Bank bills of almost all of the Southern and Western, and not a few of the Eastern States. It is evident that a "currency" of such an infinite variety of values, and these constantly fluctuating, is anything but an advantage to a business community, and demands speedy and thorough reform. In addition to gold and silver, the only "legal tender" in payment of debts, the needs of the country also require a paper currency. But that, to be of any permanent or essential service, ought to be of nearly uniform value in all parts of the Union, readily convertible into specie, and available for all purposes of remittance, or exchange. The great question, then, for financiers and statesmen now to consider and settle is, how to provide such a NATIONAL CURRENCY.

Milwaukee & Horicon R. R.—Interest on City Bonds.

We copied Saturday from the N. Y. Tribune a statement to the effect that the Milwaukee & Horicon R. R., among others, had "defaulted" on the payment of bonds of this city due on the 4th in New York. We are authorized to say, and are pleased to be able to do so, that the statement so far as the Milwaukee & Horicon R. R. is concerned, is untrue.

Emancipation in the Dutch Colonies.

The official proclamation of the Government of Holland is made, providing for the emancipation of Slaves in Curacao, Bonaire, Aruba, St. Eustatius and Laba. It may be observed that, while other governments have been the first to adopt this measure, Holland, it would seem, will be the only one that will pay a fair equivalent to the slaveholder for his slave.

Slaves emancipated by government are subject to the vigilance of functionaries paid by government for that purpose, and bearing the name of district masters. The emancipated slaves are obliged to assume a family name, which will go over to their children. All these from the age of 20 to 50 years of age can be called upon by turns to work for the State, which will pay them reasonable wages. All this will be arranged in such a manner as to insure general satisfaction.

All emancipated slaves are obliged to contribute to the formation of a fund destined to pay back to the State the expenses of their emancipation. They are to enjoy religious instruction, and schools will be provided for their children by the government. Whilst their privileges as citizens will in some cases be defined, they will enjoy the same rights and privileges as the rest of the inhabitants. All quarrels which may arise between themselves, or between them and the rest of the inhabitants, will be decided by the District Master superintending the quarter in which the disputants reside.

Payments will be made by government, immediately after the delivery is made, in bonds on the colonial chest, or on the national treasury. Children of emancipated parents born after the proclamation of this law are free, and not subject to the restrictions which their emancipated parents are under; and they are to remain under the control of their parents to the age of 12 years.

The time for the emancipation of the slaves is to fixed by the home government.

Arrival of Crawford's Statue.

The Dutch brig Wash[illegible] with the equestrian statue of [illegible]sberg, with CRAWFORD'S name, arrived in the [illegible] Washington on board, has reached Newport News [illegible]mes river, and is now at Norfolk [illegible]ce awaiting orders. "The arrival of [illegible]essel," says the Richmond Enquirer, "almost simultaneously with the intelligence of the death of the artist whose genius was manifested in the completion of his great work here his light went out forever, will be regarded by some as a melancholy coincidence; yet it is gratifying to know that the object of his latest toil has been borne in safety over the seas, and that Virginia will be permitted to perpetuate his memory by adorning her capitol with his most conspicuous achievement.

Bank Suspension Legalized in Missouri.

The bill which passed the lower branch of the Missouri Legislature on Tuesday last by a majority of twenty-five to legalize the suspension of the banks of that State, passed the Senate, also, on Thursday, by a majority of eleven. The bill requires that the banks shall resume specie payments as early at least as the first day of November 1858.

EMIGRATION TO KANSAS.—The emigration to Kansas this fall is stated to be immense. "The roads," says the Herald of Freedom, "are everywhere full of covered wagons with families."

The Temperance Cause.

In the year 1853 Mr. E. C. DELAVAN, by personal application, had obtained the signatures of Presidents MADISON, ADAMS and JACKSON, to a declaration against the use of ardent spirits.—Each successive President has added his signature to the instrument, excepting Gen. HARRISON, to whom it was not presented.

The document is now made complete up to this time by the signature of the present Chief Magistrate of the United States, and is as follows:

"Being satisfied from observation and experience, as well as from medical testimony, that ardent spirits as a drink, is not only needless but hurtful, and that the entire disuse of it would tend to promote the health, the virtue, and the happiness of the community, we hereby express our conviction that should the citizens of the United States, and especially the young men, discontinue entirely the use of it, they would not only promote their own personal health, but the good of our country and the world."

THE STRICT CONSTRUCTIONISTERS.—The Richmond South, the organ of the strict construcionists of Virginia, regards it as "undoubted" that the United States may pay Mexico "in cash or in bonds," to induce her to repeal her duties on cotton and tobacco. Per contra: the South esteems it to be eminently unconstitutional to continue existing bounties to the fishermen of New England. Our forefathers thought pretty well of the Constitution, but how augmented would have been their admiration of it, if they could have foreseen all the beauties which have been discovered in it in modern times.

AN AMERICAN PROFESSOR IN A BRITISH UNIVERSITY.—In the election for a vacant Professorship of Natural Sciences in the University of Glasgow, an honor has been conferred on Professor Henry D. Rogers, Geologist of the State of Pennsylvania, who was unanimously elected to the vacant chair. A few weeks since, the Dublin University also conferred on Professor Rogers its highest honorary degree, under circumstances implying unusual favor, since the statutes of that University restrict such honors to those who have taken the oath of allegiance to the British Government.

INDEBTEDNESS OF ST. PAUL.—The St. Paul Advertiser says at the present time there is not less than $300,000 of overdue and protested paper deposited by Eastern creditors in the banks of this city; that the indebtedness in St. Paul to banks alone, due or to become due in six months, is $750,000 more; while the eastern indebtedness of the merchants and others to mature in the same period, is $1,200,000. That is, the city owes $2,500,000, of which $1,500,000 is due to the east. Other towns in the Territory are similarly involved.

DEBT OF GREAT BRITAIN.—That portion of the national debt of Great Britain, represented by Three per cent Consols (consolidated funds) amount to four hundred million pounds, about $2,000,000,000. There is a further amount of $500,000,000, bearing the same interest, and yet this is by no means the whole of the national debt. A fall of 1 per cent in the Three per Cent Consols is equal twenty millions of dollars.

Iowa Senators.

Iowa came into the Union a Free State, but under the Pro Slavery flag. For nine years afterwards she kept two "Democrats" ensconced in the Senate Chamber at Washington, to vote with Virginia Planters against the interests of her own Farmers. Whenever the Slaveholders had a point to carry in the Senate, they could always count on a helping hand from Augustus Caesar Dodge, and another from George Washington Jones.

But the Nebraska Bill proved too heavy a load for even Iowa to carry. She revolted. Augustus Caesar "marked Spanish" out of his Senatorial Chair, into a mission to Madrid, given him by way of asylum, by President Pierce.

Jones now finds his seat "caving" from under him. The Iowa Farmers, living close to the Kansas border, know the full extent of "Democratic" villainies in Kansas, and have recorded their disapprobation of them by electing a Republican Legislature. This Legislature will oust Jones next winter, and Iowa will be represented in the U. S. Senate by two Republicans.—Albany Ev. Journal.

It is a noble record for Iowa. Our Republican friends in this State may thank their own miserable apathy for that they cannot receive such well deserved compliments from their brethren in the other free States; and New York, from whence comes the good word for Iowa, has done no better than—not nearly so well as—we have done in Wisconsin. Too much confidence and too little work has been the rule in both States, and accounts for the result.

HOW PRESIDENT BUCHANAN RECEIVES THE LADIES.—A Washington correspondent of the South says:

Mr. Buchanan still continues to have hosts of lady visitors, and scarcely a pretty woman comes to Washington, but she must see the bachelor President. His manners towards his fair visitors show that he is no "lady's man," his graceful commonplace seems to fall on him with them; and I have seen him evidently sorely taxed to find a few words to say to the fair dames who will find their way to his reception room. He is said to have even compelled to have recourse to two stereotyped phrases, which he invariably addresses by turn to the ladies, as he runs the gauntlet of them at reception hours. They are these—"Madam, is this your first visit to Washington?" A pause, and then, "Madam, I would advise you to visit the Smithsonian Institute."—After which the lady is expected to vamose.

A WITTY PAPER.—The Rigon Times, which has just closed a brief existence of a fortnight, gives its readers the following vhedictory;

VALEDICTORY.—If "brevity is the soul of wit," it may truly be said that this, our last appearance amongst the editorial fraternity as "one of 'em," is the most brilliantly witty career on record.—With a profound sense of the honor conferred by this circumstance, and a determination to wear the honor, if possible, becomingly, we bid the friends and patro s of the Western Times a respectful adieu. F. C. MESSENGER.

VOYAGE EXTRAORDINARY.—The Prairie Chien Courier announces the arrive[illegible] du place of the little sloop Hornet, [illegible] at that The following is the [illegible] from Erie, Penn.

The Hornet set [illegible] of the Hornet; day, Oct. 4th [illegible]ail from Erie, Penn., on Sunday, at 1 P [illegible], 1857, and arrived at this port Nov. [illegible] A. Oshkosh, Berlin, Princetown, Puckwa Lake, Buffalo Lake, up the river to the Portage, hauled over the canal thence to the Wisconsin river, thence down to the Mississippi.

The Hornet is 22 feet long, 6 feet beam, and sloop rigged. Capt. Duncan was accompanied by his wife during the whole voyage, and she alone assisted him in the navigation of the craft. Mrs Duncan says she has been in good health throughout the voyage, which latter her husband estimates at between twelve and thirteen hundred miles.

The Hornet, though being an open boat, has on board a cooking stove, bedding and stores, and accomplished the voyage without a leak or other accident, the couple eating and sleeping on board.

THE CHARGE OF A HIGHLAND REGIMENT.—Brigadier Gen. Havelock in his dispatches from India, thus describes the gallant charge of a Highland Regiment under a heavy fire.

"The opportunity had arrived for which I have long anxiously waited, of developing the prowess of the 78th Highlanders. Three guns of the enemy were strongly posted behind a lofty hamlet well entrenched. I directed this regiment to advance, and never have I witnessed conduct more admirable. They were led by Colonel Hamilton, and followed him with surpassing steadiness and gallantry under a heavy fire. As they approached the village they cheered and charged with the bayonet, the pipes sounding the pibroch.—Need I add that the enemy fled, the village was taken, and the guns captured.

REMIT IN RUM.—A Providence man, having occasion to receive a small sum from a correspondent in another city, gave the following very improper direction: "As all property is unsafe, and the exchanges are so shockingly deranged, you may remit the balance in rum."—Providence Journal.

MYSTERIOUS AFFAIR.

Probable Robbery and Murder!

We learn by a gentleman from Brodhead that three men were arrested yesterday upon the charge of having committed a robbery and murder in that place on September last. The names of the persons charged are given upon the streets, but until something more definite is known—the crime itself being so terrible—we deem it best to withhold them at present. Suffice it to say that one of those implicated has occupied a prominent position in the community where he has resided for years past.

The circumstances detailed are as follows: A detective policeman from Chicago has been sojourning for a few weeks past at Brodhead for the purpose of ferreting out a gang of counterfeiters, supposed to have their headquarters there. During his stay he made the acquaintance of the three men accused, and wormed himself into the confidence of two of them.

It seems that a gentleman went to Brodhead in September last for the purpose of purchasing a hotel, and bargained for it, but the next morning he was missing, and has not been heard from since. His name we cannot learn. According to the confession said to have been made he was induced to visit the barn of one of the accused, they having previously cast lots as to which one should kill him. While they were there, one of them, and he to whom the dreadful task was allotted, retired upon a pretence, and returning, struck the stranger with an axe, killing him instantly. They then took up the body and tying cords around it and stones, sunk it in Sugar River. The stranger was known to have had a considerable amount of money and one of those accused of having been engaged in the murder is said to have recently loaned quite an amount in gold to persons in this city.

The arrest of the parties implicated created an intense excitement in Brodhead yesterday, and the river was to be dragged to-day for the recovery of the body. It is not known how much money the stranger had—but it is believed to be quite a large amount. It almost surpasses belief that the desire for gold would impel men to the commission of such a dreadful crime, and especially such a man as one of them is who is inculpated. We shall wait for further developements before we give any names.—Janesville Standard, Nov. 5.

The Necromancer in Algeria.

From Paris Correspondent London Times.

Every one has seen, or heard speak of the great robert Houdin. Besides being the prince of conjurers, he is an able mathematician and mechanician, and his electric clock, made for the Hotel de Ville of his native town of Blois, obtained a medal at the Paris Exhibition. It is no generally known that he was sent to Algeria by the French Government on a mission connected with the black art—probably the first time that a conjurer has been called upon to exercise his profession in Government employ. Some details of his expedition have just been published. Its object was to destroy the influence exercised among the Arab tribes by the marabouts—an influence often mischievously applied. By a few clumsy tricks and impostures, these marabouts pass themselves off as sorcerers; no one, it was justly thought, was better able to eclipse their skill and discredit their science than the man of inexhaustible hoaxes. One of the great pretentions of the marabout was to invulnerability; At the moment that a loaded musket was fired at him, and the trigger pulled, he pronounced a few cabalistic words and the weapon did not go off. Houdin detected the trick, and showed that the touchhole was plugged. The Arab wizzard was furious, and abused his French rival. "You may revenge yourself," quietly replied Houdin, "take a pistol, load it yourself; here are bullets, put one in the barrel, but before doing so mark it with your knife." The Arab did as he was told. "You are quite certain now," said Houdin, "that the pistol is loaded and will go off. Tell me, do you feel no remorse in killing me thus, notwithstanding that I authorize you." "You are my enemy," coolly replied the Arab; "I will kill you."

Without replying, Houdin stuck an apple on the point of a knife, and calmly gave the word to fire. The pistol was discharged, the apple flew far away, and there appeared in its place, stuck on the point of the knife, the bullet the marabout had marked. The spectators remained mute from stupefaction; the marabout bowed before his superior; "Allah is great!" he said, "I am vanquished." Instead of the bottle from which, in Europe, Robert Houdin pours an endless stream of every description of wine and liquor, he called for an empty bowl, which he kept continually full of boiling coffee, but few of the Arabs would taste it, for they made sure that it came direct from the devil's own coffee pot. He then told them that it was in his power to deprive them of all strength, and to restore it to them at will, and he produced a small box, so light that a child could lift it with its finger; but it suddenly became so heavy that the strongest man present could not raise it, and the Arabs, who prize physical strength above everything, looked with terror at the great magician, who, they doubted not, could annihilate them, by the mere exertion of his will. They expressed this belief; Houdin confirmed them in it, and promised that, on a day appointed, he would convert one of them into smoke. The day came; the throng was prodigious; a fanatical marabout had agreed to give himself up to the sorcerer. They made him stand upon a table and covered him with a transparent gauze; then Houdin and the [illegible]nfluenced the table by the [illegible]wo ends, and the man [illegible]s cloud of smoke. The terror of [illegible] spectators was indescribable; they rushed out of the place, and ran a long distance before some of the boldest thought of returning to look after the marabout. They found him near the place where he had been evaporated; but he could tell them nothing, and was like a drunken man, ignorant of what had happened to him. Thenceforward Houdin was venerated, and the marabouts despised; the object of the French Government was completely attained. The fashion of "testimonials" having it appears, infected even the Arabs, a number of chiefs presented the French conjurer with a piece of Arab writing, wonderfully decorated, hyperbolical and astrological characters, and to which they were so inventive as to append a French translation. Beside this memorial of his Algerine trip, Houdin has a rosary which he one day borrowed from an Arab to perform a trick with and which the owner, persuaded that Sheitan in person was before him, refused to receive back.

What Does it Cost to Visit Europe?

This interesting question is thus satisfactorily answered by a correspondent of the Boston Post:

This is a question that I am asked not unfrequently and something may be said in answer that will be of advantage, to the inexperienced traveler. Were I to state that I spent ten or twenty thousand dollars during my first visit to Europe—and it was nearer the latter sum than the former—it would really be saying nothing definite, so I will tell what may be done. Stay-at-home people often have some very singular ideas of the expenses of foreign travel. I am not writing for the information of beggars, robbers, or gamblers, but for those who take money on sight with them to pay all their expenses, personal and otherwise.

During my last visit to Europe, I visited England, France, Belgium, Holland, Germany, Switzerland, Northern Italy and Sardinia, and I have been absent about 160 days. When I have told my questioner to guess the amount, the sum named has been usually $2,000 or $2,500. It was about one fifth of the latter sum—to within a hundred—and the very same scenes can be visited now for one-half that sum, and travel respectably. Money being usually an important consideration, we wish, in travel, as in other investments, to get as much value as possible for our dollars. I believe travelers usually do not get more than one half what they might. If a man wishes to become well acquainted with the English people at home, or any other people, in their domestic and their political condition, he must stay awhile, making their home with them.

GOLDEN WEDDING.—On Thursday last, was commemorated the Fiftieth Anniversary of the marriage of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Walton of South Reading. He was 77 years of age on the 12th of March, and his wife 75 on the 26th of January. The venerable couple were in, and have ever since occupied, the house where they still reside; and, with very few exceptions, neither of them has passed a night away from home.—The family circle remained complete until the 12th of May last, when one link was severed by the removal from earth of their eldest daughter.—The 18th anniversary of the marriage of the eldest surviving daughter occurred on Friday. The "old folks" have generally enjoyed good health; but, for a few years past, Mr. Walton's sight has been gradually failing, and recently he has been entirely deprived of the use of his eyes. He, however still retains his vocal powers, and can sing, with the fire of youth, the good old tunes of half a century ago. The aged pair enjoy the respects and esteem of the entire community.—Mrs. Walton has commended herself to general regard by going about doing good, especially to the sick, and the neighbors prefer her simple remedies to the professional prescriptions of the faculty. May the blessings of a serene and bright old age accompany them to the latest moment of their existence.—Salem Register.

SWORD BLADES.—It is stated that all the sword blades made for the English army are the work of four men, three of whom are brothers.—There is a secret in the mode of manufacture, known only by these four, and which they jealously guard. They select their own assistants, and have the right to discharge them at pleasure, when they do not like them. One of the brothers, at Enfield, makes 18 blades per day, and his average earnings weekly are about $50.

A Firm Bank.

[The following lines were written by the celebrated Portland Bill, more than a quarter of a century ago, at a period of great commercial distress in England, when the moneyed institutions of that country seemed to be in a state of collapse, and universal bankruptcy threatened the nation:]

I have a never failing bank.
Its vaults are than golden stores;
No earthly bank is half so rich;
Now, then, can I be poor?
'Tis when my stock is spent and gone,
And I without a groat,
I'm glad to hasten to my bank
To have a little note.
Sometimes my Banker smiling says,
"Why don't you oftener come?
And when you draw a little note,
Why, put a larger sum?
What live so niggardly and poor?
Your bank contains a plenty;
Why come and take a one pound note.
Or why not try for twenty?"
Yes, in my thousand, tempting told,
The Banker's credit's laid up,
Secure! God his Son
Bade them my Banker is so rich,
I have no cause to borrow;
I live upon my cash to-day,
And draw on him to-morrow.
I've been a thousand times before,
And never was refused;
Sometimes my Banker gives me more
Than asks for or expected.
Sometimes I get a little proud,
I manage things to clever;
But ah! before the day was gone,
I feel as poor as ever.
I know my bank can never fail,
Its funds always the same;
The firm, "Three Persons in one God,"
Jehovah's his name.
Should all the banks of Britain break,
The Bank of England stanch,
Bring in your notes to Zion's bank,
You'll surely get your cash.
And if you have but one small note,
Poor pot to bring he is;
Come boldly to the Throne of Grace,
The Banker is within.
All forged notes will be refused,
Many counterfeits detected;
There's not a single note will pass
That God has not accepted.
There's none but those beloved of God,
Redeemed by precious blood,
The cry had a note to bring;
These are the gifts of God.
Though thousands, doubting, often say
They have no notes at all,
Because they feel the plague of sin,
Is found within the soul.
The Bank is full of precious notes,
All signed, and sealed, and free,
Though many wretches soul may say,
"The [illegible]ne for me."
Bless'd [illegible] call this most
Today what is [illegible]ne;
I tell all souls that feel they're lost,
These notes belong to you.
The paper had a little note,
"Lord, if you will you can;"
The Banker cashed this little note
And healed the sickly man.
We read of one young man, indeed,
Whose riches did abound,
But in the Banker's book of grace
His name was never found.
But see the wretched dying thief
Hang by the Banker's side;
He cried, "Dear Lord, remember me,"
He got his cash, and died.

"WHAT'S A VISITATION?"—Mr Spearman of Newton hall, at the recent dinner of the Durham County Agricultural Society, was reminded by the absence of the clergyman, of a story which perhaps he might be permitted to relate, as he had it from a very good source—viz, from a very excellent divine, who was himself a prebendary, of the cathedral church of Durham. Two hobest farmers, in riding along together, encountered a large number of clergymen; and one of them said to the other, "Where be all these parsons coming from?" To this his friend replied "They've been at a vis-tation." The other, no wiser than before, says, "What's a visitation?" and the answer he received was," Why it's where all the parsons goes once a-year and swops their sermons." His friend, thus enlightened, quietly remarked, "Dang it, but our dissenters get the worst on it every time."—Gateshead Observer

Private and Confidential Medical Advice.

AT THE MILWAUKEE Venerian Hospital, established for the cure of Syphilis, Seminal Weakness, and the infirmities of youth and maturity, by Dr. BARNES.

DR. BARNES takes pleasure in announcing to the gentlemen of Milwaukee and other places, that his office is at No. 19 Wisconsin street.

READ AND REFLECT.—The afflicted would do well to reflect before trusting their health, happiness, and in many cases, their lives, to the hands of phys cians ignorant of the causes of maladies. It is certainly impossible for one man to understand all the ills the human family are subject to.

YEARS OF PRACTICE, exclusively devoted to the treatment of the above diseases, enable Dr. BARNES, after a careful examination of any case, to give a candid opinion of the character, effect of former habits, more upon the body, the cause of complaint, pain in the head or bones, and all Mercurial Affections, and all impurities of the Blood. Thereby the consultation has proved a blessing indeed to the afflicted, enabling the Doctor to offer relief to all who may place themselves under his care.

Dr. B. issues no charge for advice, consequently those requiring more advice than a consultation sufficient to communicate the disease should send for the answer.

LIKELY AND UNLIKELY.

It is not likely M. & P.
Will disappoint us with their Tea,
Since their move, in each transaction,
Gives the public satisfaction:
'Tis likely and 'tis certain, too,
That they'll succeed in pleasing you;
Approval they deserve from all
Who at their well known store call.
'Tis likely that the coffee, too,
Will be admired as much by you,
For be it understood that these
Are quite as inviting as the Teas.
'Tis not unlikely when you buy,
From M. & P. at their store,
That you will freely recommend,
To every relative and friend,
Their Teas and Coffees understood
As being really cheap and good.

CITY AUCTION ROOM.

City Auction Room.

GREAT SALES of Dry Goods and Clothing are going on every day and every evening. Now is the time to save money. Goods by the thousand and tens of thousands are selling at auction from day to day. Attend everybody.

oct28 CALEB WALL.

City Auction Room.

IMPORTANT TO THE LADIES.

I HAVE JUST OPENED in advance of goods which are to be sold at auction, 1 thousand silk and satin striped skirts, at 50 cents less than you can purchase them in the city. The goods consist of White Flannels, Colored Flannels, Twilled Flannels, some French Merinoes, some all wool de laines, Sak Velvets, &c. The assortment is very large, but what there is is cheaper for quality.

I have also just received one case, consisting of twelve Ladies Fast and Winter cloaks, latest style, to be sold at great bargains.

oct6 CALEB WALL.

City Auction Room.

ANYONE who has a good stock of Dry Goods, I will trade Pine Lake farm for them. With all its advantages, and it is one of the best farms in the state—and is worth more than the farm, I will pay the balance in money. Or I will exchange said farm for good improved city property. Or I will sell the said farm for good reasons, running 1, 2, 3 or 4 years. Or I will exchange said farm for Mill stones, S. H. stock. Here is a great chance for some one to get a good home, one and a half hours ride on the cars from the city, with everything that goes to make a child's life, with a good house and splendid barn, which would rent in Milwaukee for six hundred dollars a year.

CALEB WALL.

N. B.—If the said farm is not sold in thirty days, I want good, honest, quiet man and his wife to take care of said farm and all the stock through the winter, and promptly when the spring comes I will complete to keep the hole. I will give such a man a comfortable house for the winter. I do not care what country they are from, but will require good references.

PINE LAKE FARM

I now offer the Premium Farm of this State, containing 234 acres, on Pine Lake, running 3-4 of a mile fronting Lake. The improvements of said Farm are very superior. A beautiful Swiss Cottage, containing seven rooms, a carpenter shop, ice house, a good cistern, a splendid barn, a large and thriving apple orchard, (public,) about 30 acres of strawberries, Raspberries, &c.

55 acres of said farm it under plow. The said premises will be sold on very easy terms, together with the stock, farming tools, &c., as follows: Two first rate horses, five cows, 2 calves, 1 wagon and hay rack, thirty acres of hay, one hundred bushels of oats, two hundred bushels of corn, one hundred bushels of potatoes, all the garden materials, such as turnips, tomatoes, sweet corn, about forty bushels of fall and winter apples, and various other fruits and vegetables too numerous to mention.

The Farm with all it contains I will sell at a great, great bargain, on the terms, together with all the furniture in said house, as follows: Five bedsteads and mattresses, twenty chairs, 1 cook stove, one carpet, three looking chairs, and various other articles of household furniture. It is a perfect palace for style, and it is one hours ride from Milwaukee, on the Watertown and Milwaukee railroad. The lake on which said farm is located abounds with all kinds of fish, and any quantity of game, such as prairie chickens, partridges, blue winged teal duck, quails—a great chance for some one to live in great style for a very small sum of money.
